Advocacy, Information, Advice & Assistance

£150 per hour

Where work does not fall within one of my defined fixed-fee services, I charge an hourly professional fee of £150.

Where regular or longer-term professional support is required, I am happy to discuss the anticipated level of involvement and agree a bespoke package or fee arrangement.

A note about fixed fees

The prices shown are starting fees. Every person's circumstances are different and some work requires greater preparation, professional liaison, assessment, analysis or reporting.

Where this is the case, I will scope the work with you and agree the fixed fee before work begins.

Where travel is required, reasonable travel costs may be charged in addition to the agreed fee. This will be discussed with you in advance.

For further information or to discuss an instruction, please contact me.
